TITANIC STRUGGLE NOW ON IN SENATE

ITALIAN DEBT SETTLEMENT NOW UP FOR CONSIDERATION

California's Senator, Hiram Johnson, Makes the Debate Interesting By Injecting Some of His Caustic Remarks—Utah's Senator Defends the Debt Settlement As the Best That Could Be Effected Under the Circumstances—Favorable Action Likely.

France never will be given terms as liberal as those accorded to Italy in funding her war debt to the United States, Senator Reed Smoot, Utah, Republican, told the senate Thursday in opening debate upon the Italian settlement plan.

Mr. Smoot's statement was interpolated in the midst of the reading of a prepared address during senate ratification of the settlement, and when he had concluded Senator Hiram Johnson, California, Republican, arose to attack the agreement as unfair to American taxpayers.

In making his reference to the French debt Senator Smoot said he had heard a number of senators say that whatever settlement was made with Italy would be made with France. This, he said, was far from the mark, because the debt problems could in no way be compared.

"I want to assure senators now personally," he said, "that no such settlement will ever be made with France as has been made with Italy, notwithstanding that England has made a better settlement with Italy than we ourselves have made."

Only a few senators were in the chamber at the time and Senator Smoot was not questioned on his statement. In urging approval of the Italian settlement, he declared terms were the best that could be made and represented the utmost of Italy's capacity to pay.

It would be better, he agreed, to collect the sum that Italy could pay than to permit the whole debt to go by default.

Senator Johnson said that, while listening to the Utah senator's speech, he anticipated that a suggestion would be brought forward that "we float another Liberty loan" and give the proceeds to Italy. He declared he would "rather forgive every penny of the debt than insist on that settlement."

Chairman Smoot pleaded with the senate not to make the Italian debt settlement the "football of partisan politics," or to permit its judgment to be warped by "fervent criticism" of Benito Mussolini, the Fascist and the policies.

The Utah senator declared Italy had agreed to pay not only the principal of her debt of $1,600,000,000, but $800,000,000 of interest as well. Senator Smoot declared this settlement is based upon Italy's capacity to pay, in the determination of which American and Italian economics experts were in virtual accord.

The address of the finance committee chairman, carefully prepared and bristling with statistics, marked the beginning of what was the promise of being a dramatic struggle, with opponents seeking to send the bill to the foreign relations committee for further study.

Proponents are confident they can muster the votes to block that program and put the bill thru. Before the issue is settled the debate is certain to cover a wide range with military expenses by the European countries and loans abroad by international bankers of New York occupying a prominent place.

HAPPENINGS IN OUR STATE

Taken Direct From Wires By Correspondents of the United States Press Association.

Cincinnati — Two negro girls were killed by a Big Four train here Thursday when they were trapped on the Big Four bridge spanning Mill creek at Hartwall. The girls were Louise Dillingham, 11 and her sister, Mallissie, 13.

Peebles — Faced with the prospect of death in the electric chair for the murder of his wife and his mother-in-law, Thomas E. Hill, West Union farmer, in his cell here, declared he would repudiate his confession.

Hill's wife, Eliza, 62, a cripple, and his mother-in-law, Mrs. Rebecca Craigmiel, 92, also crippled and blind were incinerated in the Hill cabin near West Union, on February 13. Hill was arrested and confessed he set fire to the cabin to destroy the two women who "were an unbearable burden to him."

Cleveland — An indictment charging a former well known mayor of a village just outside Cleveland, with extortion, will be returned by the next county grand jury, County Prosecutor E. C. Stanton announced today, refusing to divulge the man's name.

Stanton declared the former mayor had been maintaining a squad of dry raiders and that in the case of each prisoner brought before him, he has assessed a fine regardless of whether the defendant plead guilty or not.

Columbus — William H. Garner and John H. Kierman, constables for the justice of peace of East Columbus were in jail today charged with accepting a bribe of $125 to release Mike Diloia, alleged prohibition violator. The money, which was marked was found on them after their arrest by police, it was said. Mike was said to have sold them liquor, at their solicitation.

BOB BREHMER WAS VISITING FORD PLANTS

Big Industries Engage in Other Work Besides Turning Out "Tin Lizzies."

"I've just had two days of the greatest industrial education in the world," declared Bob Brehmer, local Ford car, tractor and truck dealer today, when he returned after a visit to the Ford Motor Co., at Detroit. Mr. Brehmer was a member of a party made up of Ford dealers and salesmen from all over this territory. "To the average person, the name Ford probably suggested a Ford car, truck or a Fordson tractor. Yet that name in its familiar script is also the trade mark for scores of industries organized into one big unit to make cars, trucks and tractors a greater value."

"At the River Rouge plant, I was able to witness a striking demonstration of this very thing. There, the Ford lake steamers, Henry Ford II and the Benson Ford are laid up for the winter. One of the shipping board vessels which Ford purchased was being cut up and the steel utilized in manufacturing processes. I saw coal from Ford mines, brought in over the D. T. & I. Ford's railroad, and made into coke from which other by-products were extracted and used. I saw two and one-half ton trucks made from Fordson tractor power units, rubber tired Fordson tractors and Ford trucks, busy transporting materials and Ford and Lincoln cars were parked about. I had heard that the turbines and generators at Philo were the greatest ever made but they were pygmies alongside the turbines and generators which furnish the power for the River Rouge Ford industries. To add significance to the picture of Ford's influence on transportation, a Ford airplane flew over while we were at the Rouge plant on its way to Chicago.

"Within my vision, there was a great steel mill, a glass plant capable of 12,000,000 square feet of plate glass per year in one continuous stream, coke ovens and the world's largest foundry, towering blast furnaces and a paper mill and what was most remarkable everything was as clean as a pin. It is almost beyond belief to find clean, polished windows and an entire absence of dust and dirt around a foundry and rolling mill but absolute cleanliness is the rule in all Ford industries. Other divisions of the company in Detroit are the Stout Metal Airplane company, Johannson gages, department of photography which includes the Ford Educational library, the Lincoln Motor company and a trade and service school for boys and young men who seek an engineering education."

CHURCHMAN

Celebrates Thirteenth Anniversary of Elevation Today.

Thirteen has a special significance to Bishop Coadjutor Theodore Irving Reese today. It is the thirteenth anniversary of his consecration as bishop of the Episcopal church. March 25, 1913, he was elevated from the rectorship of Trinity Episcopal Church.

March has a three-fold importance to Bishop Reese, the tenth of the month being his birthday and also the anniversary of his acceptance of the rectorship of Trinity Church, which was in 1907.

Messages of congratulation were pouring into his office yesterday from his many friends over the attainment of his thirteenth year as bishop.

MARSHALL IS GUILTY, UNMOVED BY VERDICT

Chiropractor Faces 10 To 20 Year Prison Term For Slaying Anna May Dietrich.

Philadelphia, March 24.—David L. Marshall, convicted today of second degree murder for the killing of Anna May Dietrich, faces a sentence of 10 to 20 years if he is not granted a new trial.

The unregistered chiropractor, who admitted dismembering the woman's body after she died in his office, heard the jury verdict with little outward emotion.

On the witness stand he had said Miss Dietrich, who was his patient, died from self-administered poison and rather than have the notoriety of her dying in his office, he dismembered the body and distributed the parts in woods in the suburbs.

The commonwealth, however, submitted a confession in which he said he choked her to death in a quarrel because she threatened to expose their relations to his wife.

Mail Dropped From Planes

Mail dropped 6,000 feet from airplanes into delivery on the ground may be a common thing in England if tests now being made there prove successful. These "letter boxes" would be cleared spaces used especially for mail. In the new scheme it is understood the mail bags are attached to parachutes that open at a certain distance from the earth, checking the descent and preventing damage to the mail.—Popular Science Monthly.

Three Engines in Fokker

Three engines are provided for in the new type of Fokker airplane that is being designed in Holland. Not all engines will run at the same time when the plane is flying horizontally, and when two of them are shut off the one remaining engine keeps the machine up without much loss of height.

Pride's Ill Effects

The blindness of men is the most dangerous effect of their pride; it seems to nourish and augment it; it deprives them of knowledge of remedies which can solace their miseries and can cure their faults.—La Rochefoucauld.

Hurt by Fashion's Change

Every time fashion changes someone suffers. Hobble skirts appeared in 1910, with the result that in the following year the export of silk from Lyons, in France, fell off by nearly $5,500,000. The simple fact was that women required less material for their gowns.

Father of Vaccination

The discovery of the prophylactic power of vaccination was made by Edward Jenner, an English physician. He discussed it with Edward Gardner in 1780, but continued to experiment for many years. He performed his first public inoculation with vaccine on May 14, 1796.

Derivation of "Heathen"

The word "heathen" in its original sense means, "of the heath or open country." It has been suggested that the word acquired its meaning from the fact that at the introduction of Christianity into Germany the wild dwellers on the heaths longest resisted the truth.

Ford

When You Trade Your Car—

Ford owners are continually being approached by automobile salesmen who wish to "accept" Fords as part payment on more expensive cars.

It is logical that automobile dealers should be eager to trade with Ford owners. No other used car is so easy to sell as a used Ford—because everyone has confidence in Ford quality. And it is not expensive to recondition, since Ford replacement parts are lowest in price.

Most automobiles carry greater discounts to dealers than the Ford—another reason why other dealers may offer the Ford owner a larger trade-in allowance.

But, bear these facts in mind:

The amount of the trade-in allowance you can get is not the most important thing for you to consider. The big thing is the difference you have to pay. And remember, that the higher priced car will not be so easy to dispose of when you come to trade it in.

If you wish to trade your Ford for a new automobile, stick to the car that you know to be dependable, useful and economical. Go to your Ford dealer!

He will give you a fair and liberal allowance for your present Ford and will gladly arrange payment of the balance to suit your convenience.

Rust Badly Affecting Famous Eiffel Tower

Unless a protective paint can be found the Eiffel tower is threatened with ultimate destruction by rust. Engineers, who have just examined it, have found that despite all precautions taken in the past, rust is rapidly eating away the huge metal structure which rises to a height of nearly 1,000 feet to the top of its flagstaff. When the tower was built in 1889 every section was coated with three layers of a special mixture of red lead and pure linseed oil, which, in their turn, were covered with thick paint. Two years later, however, the elements had eaten their way through the paint and were beginning to spread rust. In 1892 the badly rusted parts were scraped and repainted with white lead, linseed oil and ochre. Since then the tower has been repainted and varnished with various products in 1899, 1907, 1914, and 1924, but the process of disintegration of the metal goes on. The experts are striving to discover a new protective paint which, in addition to being proof against oxidation, will be a nonconductor of electricity so as to guard against galvanic action.

Old Wayside Inn Sign Found in Hayloft

Wellesley, Mass.—The swinging sign that formerly hung over the front door of the old Wayside Inn at Sudbury has been found in a Wellesley hills hayloft and Henry Ford, who now owns the inn, may have it "if he's a mind to call for it."

William Diehl, a farmer, dug the relic out of the chaff of years. About twenty years ago, he said, a party of Harvard students bent on a lark, hired one of his sleighs for a trip to Sudbury. When the sleigh was returned the sign was in it, and Diehl tossed it into the hayloft. It shows a prancing, chestnut horse, on a gayly painted background, and bears the title "Wayside Inn." A painter who examined the work said it must have been done 80 years ago.

Money spent in this manner must be added to the overhead expense and the customer pays that expense.

Fortune From Water
Lilies and Goldfish

Establishment of what promises to be an important new industry for the western part of Ontario was seen the other day in the announcement of Charles W. Hayes that he has just leased a tract of five acres of land at the outskirts of the city for the establishment on a large scale of a water lily farm. He is already assured of a big market for the products of his plant. On the tract just leased are 100 inches of flowing water and the initial planting of some fifteen varieties of water lilies is now going forward in three pools on the land.

The proprietor of the establishment announced he expects to sell 15,000 plants this year. In recent years, Mr. Hayes has gained considerable fame as a "goldfish farmer," at his original plant at San Antonio Heights and in reservoirs throughout various parts of southern California. Mr. Hayes now has more than a quarter million fish. With retailing concerns alone he is now under contract to supply 2,000 fish a week and another has contracted to dispose of 10,000 a season.—Los Angeles Times.

CLEARLY, BOY HADN'T
SET RIVER AFIRE

Dean Everett Lord of the college of business administration of Boston university has figured out that a college education's actual cost is $70,000.

"Is it worth that?" he said at a Cambridge luncheon. "Well, asking such a question is like asking whether a country boy will succeed or fail when he comes to the city. It all depends, of course, on the boy."

"Once there was a boy who went to New York expecting to set the river on fire. All his family expected him to set the river on fire, too. Likewise his friends shared in this expectation. "Well, some weeks passed, and then the boy's father received—collect—a very dirty-looking letter containing these words:

"Dear father: Meet me behind the station tomorrow, Tuesday night, at ten o'clock. Bring a blanket and a pair of shoes. I have a hat."

AMUSEMENTS

The biggest gold rush since the days of '49 took place recently in the Sierra Nevada mountains of California for the filming of a motion picture.

Because of the scarcity of people to take part in the mob scenes for Betty Bronson's initial starring vehicle, "The Golden Princess," Clarence Badger, the director, dispatched mounted riders to every active mining camp and prospector's shack, within a radius of fifty miles from the mountain location camp, asking for men and women to play in the production.

True to the reputation of the west, the call was heeded and hundreds of persons dropped their work to come to the aid of the film company. The overwhelming majority admitted they came from sheer curiosity, but there were others who responded because assistance was asked.

The idea of acting before the camera drew many from the town of Bishop, California, and for an entire day practically every store and place of business in town was closed. That the movies appeal to all levels of humanity was amply demonstrated by the fact that among those who appeared as "extras" were three ministers, a lawyer, a justice of the peace, five store keepers, a hotel proprietor and a real estate agent.

Mr. Badger was agreeably surprised when J. Steven Word, famous oil painter, and V. W. Hightower, prominent author, volunteered their services. Both men have mountain homes in the vicinity of the location camp, and when they learned there was a scarcity of "extra" players, they decided to help out and enjoyed the experience tremendously.

"The Golden Princess" is a stirring melodrama of the early California days and vividly recreates the spectacular gold rush of 1849. Neil Hamilton, Rockcliffe Fellowes and Phyllis Haver handle the principal supporting roles.

Hydrogen and Oxygen

Hydrogen, from the Greek word "hydor," water, was known to exist as early as the beginning of the sixteenth century. In 1766 the English scientist, Cavendish, proved it to be an elementary body. It was at first called "inflammable air. One volume of hydrogen combined with two of oxygen form water.

Shaving and the Hair

Many believe that continuous shaving of the human hair makes the hair wiry, but now it is declared there is no foundation for this belief. Tests made by growing beards on men who had shaved for as long as 40 years showed that such hair was no stiffer than the beards of men who had never shaved at all.

Pomeroy, March 24.—The body of James McCumber, 55, missing since March 15, was found today in an abandoned cistern on the John Arnold farm, three miles from his home, by John Ratcliff, a tenant of the farm.

McCumber apparently had been killed by a blow on the head, which was bound up in a cloth. It was evident the body was taken to the hiding place in an automobile and authorities believe the slaying was the work of bootleggers.

DAYTON LIGHT

Company Enters Protest Against Rate Fixing Ordinance.

Columbus, March 24.—(UP.)—Appealing from an ordinance passed March 1 by the Dayton city council, the Dayton Power & Light Company today protested to the public utilities commission, against the ordinance which would fix the minimum price of natural gas in Dayton at 50 cents per thousand cubic feet.

The new ordinance passed by the Dayton solons is to run from April 1, 1925 to April 23, 1930.

The Dayton company claims these new rates would be "unjust, unreasonable and unlawful." Since 1916, according to the protest of the gas company, the Dayton city council passed several rate schedules which were accepted satisfactorily by the Dayton company.

A WILD AND WOOLY

Gun Battle Staged In the Capital City Last Night.

Columbus, March 25.—(UP.)—Selecting a street intersection for their battle ground, Sam Rosofsky, a Federal prohibition agent, and Joe Conrad with whom Rosofsky had quarreled, fought a gun duel here during the night in which each wounded the other. Police were searching for Conrad today and the dry agent was in a hospital here, nursing a shattered arm.

The two men met at a street intersection here last night. Conrad immediately began shooting. Although a bullet had shattered his arm, Rosofsky retaliated, wounding Conrad in the hip. Twelve shots were exchanged with pedestrians attracted by the shooting, scurrying to shelter. Conrad crawled to his auto and fled.

Both Rosofsky and Conrad have police records, according to authorities. Rosofsky, due to his ability to ferret out liquor dives and bootleggers, has been on the Federal payroll. He fled in a stolen automobile following the shooting but later returned the machine and told police his version of the duel.

Service

Their lives have no discernible echo beyond the neighborhood where they dwell, but you are sure to find there some good piece of road, some building, some application of mineral produce, some improvement in farming practice, some reform of parish abuses, with which their names are associated by one or two generations after them.—George Elliot.

The Star chamber, famous in English history, was the hall at Westminster in which special civil and criminal cases were tried. Its name is said to be derived from the stars originally adorning its roof.

Shoe Superstitions

If a German mother has the misfortune to lose the heel of her shoe she believes that one of her children will die before the end of the year. In Spain old shoes are looked upon as mascots, and a pair is always kept in the house for luck. In Belgium the person who puts on the left shoe first is held to be lucky in love.

WASHINGTON SPECIALS

(By Paul R. Mallon, United Press Staff Correspondent.)

Washington, March 24.—With opening of the Democratic congressional campaign in Maine today, Democratic leaders here made known their strategy of concentrating forces in twelve selected doubtful states—any nine of which would give them control of the next Senate.

The states selected are Illinois, Oregon, Missouri, Oklahoma, Kentucky, Ohio, California, Massachusetts, Maryland, Colorado and New York.

These states are now represented by Republican senators. The Democrats feel that they have the best chance to win in these states.

Of thirty-four senators up for re-election in November, 27 are Republicans and seven Democrats. It is believed at this stage of the proceedings that 12 Republicans and the seven Democrats are virtually sure to be retained. This leaves fifteen Republican seats doubtful.

The present line-up of the Senate shows fifty-six Republicans, thirty-nine Democrats and one Farmer-Labor. If the minority should win all twelve seats the line-up would show Democrats 51, Republicans 44, and Farmer-Labor one.

W. B. Mayo, chief engineer of Henry Ford in a letter this afternoon to Chairman Dempsey of the house rivers and harbors committee, endorsed the St. Lawrence waterway and the All-American Canal across New York state. Mayo informed Dempsey that Ford favored development of both routes to provide cheaper transportation facilities.

Internal revenue receipts for the first eight months of the current fiscal year were $1,540,677, 254.80, an increase of $110,636, 718 over the same period last year, the treasury department announced today. Income tax collections for the eight months' period amounting to $915,894, 961, showed an increase of $54,776,998.

Almost Breaks Monte Carlo Playing "Sixes"

Monte Carlo.—Sixes, but no sevens, was the system by which a gentleman from Cannes nearly broke the bank at Monte Carlo recently, winning $70,000 in one sitting. Had he won an additional $30,000 the bank would have had to close for the day.

The player explained that his Christian name and surname were both composed of six letters each; his automobile license number was 6666 and when he first entered the rooms, he heard the croupier call out six as the winning number.

He then staked the limit on number 6 and all multiples of six and won steadily.

HARTMAN THEATER.

George Arliss, leading actor of the English speaking stage, returns to the Hartman theater, Columbus, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, March 29, 30 and 31, with Wednesday matinee, to appear in Winthrop Ames' production of John Galsworthy's play "Old English," which is said to give Arliss the greatest role of his career. Recalling the Arliss Disraeli, Alexander Hamilton and Rajah of Rukh in "The Green Goddess," this seems a broad statement, but certain it is that "Old English" is a different kind of a character from those associated with the name of Arliss.

Sylvanus Heythrop, called Old English but his associates, is not the usual Galsworthy hero. The English author, hitherto impartial, almost afraid, as it were, of taking sides with any of his characters, pleads the cause of an octogenarian sinner, who is about to meet the first defeat and who goes to his end magnificently. As Robert L. Stevenson put it, "gladly he lived and gladly he dies." To look for a moral in "Old English" may be to find it, but it so highly is embroidered by the author that he will be brave who shall try to reduce the drama to platitudes.

Winthrop Ames has produced "Old English." Ames staged "Strife" and "The Pigeon" in America. He has brought out many notable plays. It would seem that in Ames Galsworthy meets a producer entirely in sympathy with his work. The cast includes all the players who impressed New York during the two hundred nights "Old English" was acted there. Irby Marshall is leading woman for Mr. Arliss. Ivan F. Simpson will be remembered for his portrayal of Watkins, the butler, in "The Green Goddess." Others in the company are Cecile Dixon, Molly Johnson, Ethel Griffies, Henrietta Goodwin, Murray Kinnell, Robert Harrigan, Henry Morrell, Gilbert Cowan, Gordon McRae, Guy Cunningham, Perry Norman, Lewis A. Sealy, John Hall, Edward Cooper, M. Murray Stephens, John Parrish, Arthur Villars and Thomas Donnelly.

NATURE DOES PLAY FAVORITES

There is the California climate and Pennsylvania Oil.

Nature created a masterpiece when she gave to a strip of eastern land a deposit of the finest crude oil that man has ever drawn from the depths of the earth.

PENNSYLVANIA CRUDE OIL

No other is like it. No other is made from the same materials. East or West, out of thousands of oil deposits, there is only one oil field producing this grade of oil---the Pennsylvania Oil Field which includes western New York, Pennsylvania, West Virginia and southeastern Ohio.

Why? There is no answer, except some favor of nature---like the sunshine of California.

It isn't a lavish deposit. Nature chose to work on the quality, rather than the quantity basis. Only a small part of the country's oil production comes from the Pennsylvania field. But the reputation of this oil reaches around the world.

Throughout the world, the thorough lubrication of automobile engines is but one of the many difficult lubrication jobs which pure Pennsylvania Oil is called upon to perform.

TITANIC STRUGGLE NOW ON IN SENATE

ITALIAN DEBT SETTLEMENT NOW UP FOR CONSIDERATION

California's Senator, Hiram Johnson, Makes the Debate Interesting By Injecting Some of His Caustic Remarks—Utah's Senator Defends the Debt Settlement As the Best That Could Be Effected Under the Circumstances—Favorable Action Likely.

France never will be given terms as liberal as those accorded to Italy in funding her war debt to the United States, Senator Reed Smoot, Utah, Republican, told the senate Thursday in opening debate upon the Italian settlement plan.

Mr. Smoot's statement was interpolated in the midst of the reading of a prepared address during senate ratification of the settlement, and when he had concluded Senator Hiram Johnson, California, Republican, arose to attack the agreement as unfair to American taxpayers.

In making his reference to the French debt Senator Smoot said he had heard a number of senators say that whatever settlement was made with Italy would be made with France. This, he said, was far from the mark, because the debt problems could in no way be compared.

"I want to assure senators now personally," he said, "that no such settlement will ever be made with France as has been made with Italy, notwithstanding that England has made a better settlement with Italy than we ourselves have made."

Only a few senators were in the chamber at the time and Senator Smoot was not questioned on his statement. In urging approval of the Italian settlement, he declared terms were the best that could be made and represented the utmost of Italy's capacity to pay.

It would be better, he agreed, to collect the sum that Italy could pay than to permit the whole debt to go by default.

Senator Johnson said that, while listening to the Utah senator's speech, he anticipated that a suggestion would be brought forward that "we float another Liberty loan" and give the proceeds to Italy. He declared he would "rather forgive every penny of the debt than insist on that settlement."

Chairman Smoot pleaded with the senate not to make the Italian debt settlement the "football of partisan politics," or to permit its judgment to be warped by "fervent criticism" of Benito Mussolini, the Fascisti and the policies.

The Utah senator declared Italy had agreed to pay not only the principal of her debt of $1,600,000,000, but $800,000,000 of interest as well. Senator Smoot declared this settlement is based upon Italy's capacity to pay, in the determination of which American and Italian economics experts were in virtual accord.

The address of the finance committee chairman, carefully prepared and bristling with statistics, marked the beginning of what was the promise of being a dramatic struggle, with opponents seeking to send the bill to the foreign relations committee for further study.

Proponents are confident they can muster the votes to block that program and put the bill thru. Before the issue is settled the debate is certain to cover a wide range with military expenses by the European countries and loans abroad by international bankers of New York occupying a prominent place.

CHURCHMAN

Celebrates Thirteenth Anniversary of Elevation Today.

Thirteen has a special significance to Bishop Coadjutor Theodore Irving Reese today. It is the thirteenth anniversary of his consecration as bishop of the Episcopal church. March 25, 1913, he was elevated from the rectorship of Trinity Episcopal Church.

March has a three-fold importance to Bishop Reese, the tenth of the month being his birthday and also the anniversary of his acceptance of the rectorship of Trinity Church, which was in 1907.

Messages of congratulation were pouring into his office yesterday from his many friends over the attainment of his thirteenth year as bishop.

MARSHALL IS GUILTY, UNMOVED BY VERDICT

Chiropractor Faces 10 To 20 Year Prison Term For Slaying Anna May Dietrich.

Philadelphia, March 24.—David L. Marshall, convicted today of second degree murder for the killing of Anna May Dietrich, faces a sentence of 10 to 20 years if he is not granted a new trial.

The unregistered chiropractor, who admitted dismembering the woman's body after she died in his office, heard the jury verdict with little outward emotion.

On the witness stand he had said Miss Dietrich, who was his patient, died from self-administered poison and rather than have the notoriety of her dying in his office, he dismembered the body and distributed the parts in woods in the suburbs.

The commonwealth, however, submitted a confession in which he said he choked her to death in a quarrel because she threatened to expose their relations to his wife.

Mail Dropped From Planes

Mail dropped 6,000 feet from airplanes into delivery on the ground may be a common thing in England if tests now being made there prove successful. These "letter boxes" would be cleared spaces used especially for mail. In the new scheme it is understood the mail bags are attached to parachutes that open at a certain distance from the earth, checking the descent and preventing damage to the mail.—Popular Science Monthly.

Three Engines in Fokker

Three engines are provided for in the new type of Fokker airplane that is being designed in Holland. Not all engines will run at the same time when the plane is flying horizontally, and when two of them are shut off the one remaining engine keeps the machine up without much loss of height.

Pride's Ill Effects

The blindness of men is the most dangerous effect of their pride; it seems to nourish and augment it; it deprives them of knowledge of remedies which can solace their miseries and can cure their faults.—La Rochefoucauld.

Hurt by Fashion's Change

Every time fashion changes someone suffers. Hobbie skirts appeared in 1910, with the result that in the following year the export of silk from Lyons, in France, fell off by nearly $5,500,000. The simple fact was that women required less material for their gowns.

Father of Vaccination

The discovery of the prophylactic power of vaccination was made by Edward Jenner, an English physician. He discussed it with Edward Gardner in 1780, but continued to experiment for many years. He performed his first public inoculation with vaccine on May 14, 1796.

Derivation of "Heathen"

The word "heathen" in its original sense means, "of the heath or open country." It has been suggested that the word acquired its meaning from the fact that at the introduction of Christianity into Germany the wild dwellers on the heaths longest resisted the truth.

Ford

When You Trade Your Car—

Ford owners are continually being approached by automobile salesmen who wish to "accept" Fords as part payment on more expensive cars.

It is logical that automobile dealers should be eager to trade with Ford owners. No other used car is so easy to sell as a used Ford—because everyone has confidence in Ford quality. And it is not expensive to recondition, since Ford replacement parts are lowest in price.

Most automobiles carry greater discounts to dealers than the Ford—another reason why other dealers may offer the Ford owner a larger trade-in allowance.

But, bear these facts in mind:

The amount of the trade-in allowance you can get is not the most important thing for you to consider. The big thing is the difference you have to pay. And remember, that the higher priced car will not be so easy to dispose of when you come to trade it in.

If you wish to trade your Ford for a new automobile, stick to the car that you know to be dependable, useful and economical. Go to your Ford dealer!

He will give you a fair and liberal allowance for your present Ford and will gladly arrange payment of the balance to suit your convenience.

Brains of Men and Women

The brain of man is usually heavier than that of woman, although at birth and at the age of fourteen the female brain is heavier. The average weight of the adult male's brain is about 48 ounces and of the female about 43½ ounces. Weight of brains, however, has no direct relationship with intelligence.

Rust Badly Affecting

Famous Eiffel Tower

Unless a protective paint can be found the Eiffel tower is threatened with ultimate destruction by rust. Engineers, who have just examined it, have found that despite all precautions taken in the past, rust is rapidly eating away the huge metal structure which rises to a height of nearly 1,000 feet to the top of its flagstaff. When the tower was built in 1889 every section was coated with three layers of a special mixture of red lead and pure linseed oil, which, in their turn, were covered with thick paint. Two years later, however, the elements had eaten their way through the paint and were beginning to spread rust. In 1892 the badly rusted parts were scraped and repainted with white lead, linseed oil and ochre. Since then the tower has been repainted and varnished with various products in 1899, 1907, 1914, and 1924, but the process of disintegration of the metal goes on. The experts are striving to discover a new protective paint which, in addition to being proof against oxidation, will be a nonconductor of electricity so as to guard against galvanic action.

Old Wayside Inn Sign Found in Hayloft

Wellesley, Mass.—The swinging sign that formerly hung over the front door of the old Wayside Inn at Sudbury has been found in a Wellesley hills hayloft and Henry Ford, who now owns the inn, may have it "if he's a'mind to call for it."

William Diehl, a farmer, dug the relic out of the chaff of years. About twenty years ago, he said, a party of Harvard students bent on a lark, hired one of his sleighs for a trip to Sudbury. When the sleigh was returned the sign was in it, and Diehl tossed it into the hayloft. It shows a prancing, chestnut horse, on a gayly painted background, and bears the title "Wayside Inn." A painter who examined the work said it must have been done 80 years ago.

Horses and Autos

A statistician attempts to prove with figures that horses cause more accidents. We are not so sure. But we do know the old horse and buggy still have one argument in their favor. Fortune From Water

Lilies and Goldfish

Establishment of what promises to be an important new industry for the western part of Ontario was seen the other day in the announcement of Charles W. Hayes that he has just leased a tract of five acres of land at the outskirts of the city for the establishment on a large scale of a water lily farm. He is already assured of a big market for the products of his plant. On the tract just leased are 100 inches of flowing water and the initial planting of some fifteen varieties of water lilies is now going forward in three pools on the land.

The proprietor of the establishment announced he expects to sell 15,000 plants this year. In recent years, Mr. Hayes has gained considerable fame as a "goldfish farmer," at his original plant at San Antonio Heights and in reservoirs throughout various parts of southern California. Mr. Hayes now has more than a quarter million fish. With retailing concerns alone he is now under contract to supply 2,000 fish a week and another has contracted to dispose of 10,000 a season.—Los Angeles Times.

CLEARLY, BOY HADN'T SET RIVER AFIRE

Dean Everett Lord of the college of business administration of Boston university has figured out that a college education's actual cost is $70,000.

"Is it worth that?" he said at a Cambridge luncheon. "Well, asking such a question is like asking whether a country boy will succeed or fail when he comes to the city. It all depends, of course, on the boy.

"Once there was a boy who went to New York expecting to set the river on fire. All his family expected him to set the river on fire, too. Likewise his friends shared in this expectation.

"Well, some weeks passed, and then the boy's father received—collect—a very dirty-looking letter containing these words:

"Dear father: Meet me behind the station tomorrow. Tuesday night, at ten o'clock. Bring a blanket and a pair of shoes. I have a hat."

AMUSEMENTS

The biggest gold rush since the days of '49 took place recently in the Sierra Nevada mountains of California for the filming of a motion picture.

Because of the scarcity of people to take part in the mob scenes for Betty Bronson's initial starring vehicle, "The Golden Princess," Clarence Badger, the director, dispatched mounted riders to every active mining camp and Prospector's shack, within a radius of fifty miles from the mountain location camp, asking for men and women to play in the production.

True to the reputation of the west, the call was heeded and hundreds of persons dropped their work to come to the aid of the film company. The overwhelming majority admitted they came from sheer curiosity, but there were others who responded because assistance was asked.

The idea of acting before the camera drew many from the town of Bishop, California, and for an entire day practically every store and place of business in town was closed. That the movies appeal to all levels of humanity was amply demonstrated by the fact that among those who appeared as "extras" were three ministers, a lawyer, a justice of the peace five store keepers, a hotel proprietor and a real estate agent.

Mr. Badger was agreeably surprised when J. Steven Word, famous oil painter, and V. W. Hightower, prominent author, volunteered their services. Both men have mountain homes in the vicinity of the location camp, and when they learned there was a scarcity of "extra" players, they decided to help out and enjoyed the experience tremendously.

"The Golden Princess" is a stirring melodrama of the early California days and vividly recreates the spectacular gold rush of 1849. Neil Hamilton, Rockcliffe Fellowes and Phyllis Haver handle the principal supporting roles.

Hydrogen and Oxygen

Hydrogen, from the Greek word "hydor," water, was known to exist as early as the beginning of the sixteenth century. In 1766 the English scientist, Cavendish, proved it to be an elementary body. It was at first called "inflammable air. One volume of hydrogen combined with two of oxygen form water.

Shaving and the Hair

Many believe that continuous shaving of the human hair makes the hair wiry, but now it is declared there is no foundation for this belief. Tests made by growing beards on men who had shaved for as long as 40 years showed that such hair was no stiffer than the beards of men who had never shaved at all.

BODY OF MAN

Found In Abandoned Cistern—Missing Since March 15.

Pomeroy, March 24.—The body of James McCumber, 55, missing since March 15, was found today in an abandoned cistern on the John Arnold farm, three miles from his home, by John Ratcliff, a tenant of the farm.

McCumber apparently had been killed by a blow on the head, which was bound up in a cloth. It was evident the body was taken to the hiding place in an automobile and authorities believe the slaying was the work of bootleggers.

DAYTON LIGHT

Company Enters Protest Against Rate Fixing Ordinance.

Columbus, March 24.—(UP.)—Appealing from an ordinance passed March 1 by the Dayton city council, the Dayton Power & Light Company today protested to the public utilities commission, against the ordinance which would fix the minimum price of natural gas in Dayton at 50 cents per thousand cubic feet.

The new ordinance passed by the Dayton solons is to run from April 1, 1925 to April 23, 1930.

The Dayton company claims these new rates would be "unjust, unreasonable and unlawful." Since 1916, according to the protest of the gas company, the Dayton city council passed several rate schedules which were accepted satisfactorily by the Dayton company.

A WILD AND WOOLY

Gun Battle Staged In the Capital City Last night.

Columbus, March 25.—(UP.)—Selecting a street intersection for their battle ground, Sam Rosofsky, a Federal prohibition agent, and Joe Conrad with whom Rosofsky had quarreled, fought a gun duel here during the night in which each wounded the other. Police were searching for Conrad today and the dry agent was in a hospital here, nursing a shattered arm.

The two men met at a street intersection here last night. Conrad immediately began shooting. Although a bullet had shattered his arm, Rosofsky retaliated, wounding Conrad in the hip. Twelve shots were exchanged with pedestrians attracted by the shooting, scurrying to shelter. Conrad crawled to his auto and fled.

Both Rosofsky and Conrad have police records, according to authorities. Rosofsky, due to his ability to ferret out liquor dives and bootleggers, has been on the Federal payroll. He fled in a stolen automobile following the shooting but later returned the machine and told police his version of the duel.

WASHINGTON SPECIALS

(By Paul R. Mallon, United Press Staff Correspondent.)

Washington, March 24.—With opening of the Democratic congressional campaign in Maine today, Democratic leaders here made known their strategy of concentrating forces in twelve selected doubtful states—any nine of which would give them control of the next Senate.

The states selected are Illinois, Oregon, Missouri, Oklahoma, Kentucky, Ohio, California, Massachusetts, Maryland, Colorado and New York.

These states are now represented by Republican senators. The Democrats feel that they have the best chance to win in these states.

Of thirty-four senators up for re-election in November, 27 are Republicans and seven Democrats. It is believed at this stage of the proceedings that 12 Republicans and the seven Democrats are virtually sure to be retained. This leaves fifteen Republican seats doubtful.

The present line-up of the Senate shows fifty-six Republicans, thirty-nine Democrats and one Farmer-Labor. If the minority should win all twelve seats the line-up would show Democrats 51, Republicans 44, and Farmer-Labor one.

W. B. Mayo, chief engineer of Henry Ford in a letter this afternoon to Chairman Dempsey of the house rivers and harbors committee, endorsed the St. Lawrence waterway and the All-American Canal across New York state. Mayo informed Dempsey that Ford favored development of both routes to provide cheaper transportation facilities.

Internal revenue receipts for the first eight months of the current fiscal year were $1,540,677,254.80, an increase of $110,636,718 over the same period last year, the treasury department announced today. Income tax collections for the eight months' period amounting to $915,894,961, showed an increase of $54,776,998.

Almost Breaks Monte

Carlo Playing "Sixes"

Monte Carlo.—Sixes, but no sevens, was the system by which a gentleman from Cannes nearly broke the bank at Monte Carlo recently, winning $70,000 in one sitting. Had he won an additional $30,000 the bank would have had to close for the day.

The player explained that his Christian name and surname were both composed of six letters each; his automobile license number was 6,666 and when he first entered the rooms, he heard the croupier call out six as the winning number.

He then staked the limit on number 6 and all multiples of six and won steadily.

x HARTMAN THEATER. x
x x x x x x x x

George Arliss, leading actor of the English speaking stage, returns to the Hartman theater, Columbus, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, March 29, 30 and 31, with Wednesday matinee, to appear in Winthrop Ames' production of John Galsworthy's play "Old English," which is said to give Arliss the greatest role of his career. Recalling the Arliss Disraeli, Alexander Hamilton and Rajah of Rukh in "The Green Goddess," this seems a broad statement, but certain it is that "Old English" is a different kind of a character from those associated with the name of Arliss.

Sylvanus Heythrop, called Old English but his associates, is not the usual Galsworthy hero. The English author, hitherto impartial, almost afraid, as it were, of taking sides with any of his characters, pleads the cause of an octogenarian sinner, who is about to meet the first defeat and who goes to his end magnificently. As Robert L. Stevenson put it, "gladly he lived and gladly he dies." To look for a moral in "Old English" may be to find, it, but it so highly is embroidered by the author that he will be brave who shall try to reduce the drama to platitudes.

Winthrop Ames has produced "Old English." Ames staged "Strife" and "The Pigeon" in America. He has brought out many notable plays. It would seem that in Ames Galsworthy meets a producer entirely in sympathy with his work. The cast includes all the players who impressed New York during the two hundred nights "Old English" was acted there. Irby Marshal is leading woman for Mr. Arliss. Ivan F. Simpson will be remembered for his portrayal of Watkins, the butler, in "The Green Goddess." Others in the company are Cecile Dixon, Molly Johnson, Ethel Griffies, Henrietta Goodwin, Murray Kinnell, Robert Harrigan, Henry Morrell, Gilbert Cowan, Gordon McRae, Guy Cunningham, Perry Norman, Lewis A. Sealy, John Hall, Edward Cooper, M. Murray Stephens, John Parrish, Arthur Villars and Thomas Donnelly.

NATURE DOES PLAY FAVORITES

There is the California climate and Pennsylvania Oil.

Nature created a masterpiece when she gave to a strip of eastern land a deposit of the finest crude oil that man has ever drawn from the depths of the earth.

PENNSYLVANIA CRUDE OIL

No other is like it. No other is made from the same materials. East or West, out of thousands of oil deposits, there is only one oil field producing this grade of oil---the Pennsylvania Oil Field which includes western New York, Pennsylvania, West Virginia and southeastern Ohio.

Why? There is no answer, except some favor of nature---like the sunshine of California.

It isn't a lavish deposit. Nature chose to work on the quality, rather than the quantity basis. Only a small part of the country's oil production comes from the Pennsylvania field. But the reputation of this oil reaches around the world.

Throughout the world, the thorough lubrication of automobile engines is but one of the many difficult lubrication jobs which pure Pennsylvania Oil is called upon to perform.
